Upon consideration of appellant's motion for a waiver of PACER fees for electronic access to the docket, the court finds that an exemption is appropriate to avoid unreasonable burdens and promote public access to information.

Accordingly, the court grants appellant an exemption from PACER fees for such electronic access to this court's docket and filings in case No. 25-1162, Ryan Dillon-Capps v. Ohana Growth Partners, LLC, through October 20, 2025. This exemption applies only to this court's electronic docket and is not a waiver of PACER fees for electronic access to the dockets of other federal courts.
