

the account. A key fob may not be required, or rather simply an MFA code retrieved from an Authentication App.

15. The following is a June 27, 2024 screenshot showing the current authentication methods available for the Null Backup account:

Thus, Defendant Dillon-Capps, or anyone else, could likely access the Null Backup account without any multifactor authentication whatsoever and would only need the password for the account. No key fob appears to be required.

16. For the reasons stated in Paragraphs 12 through 15 above, contrary to Defendant Ryan Dillon-Capps testimony, Defendant Dillon-Capps could access Global Admin rights for the Ohana Microsoft 365 Tenant and could comply with the TRO and Preliminary Injunction without using one of the purportedly missing key fobs.

This is the only affidavit signed this way.

The transcript of the 26th and 27th does not reflect the proceedings entirely. Notably is the testimony of Randal Romes and Caroline Dillon-Capps who had their testimony redacted.

Romes was asked about the affidavit, and Barranco immediately stopped cross and redirected to ask questions to Dillon-Capps

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: COBRA Continuation Coverage and other Health Coverage Alternatives

Dear Ryan Dillon-Capps:

This notice has important information about your right to continue your group health care coverage in the Ohana Growth Partners LLC- OGP (the Plan), as well as other health coverage options that may be available to you, including coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596. You may be able to get coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace that costs less than COBRA continuation coverage.

Please read the information in this notice very carefully before you make your decision. If you choose to elect COBRA continuation coverage, you should use the election form provided later in this notice. If you have any questions about this notice and/or your right to elect COBRA continuation coverage, you may contact Kelly Benefits Insurance Group, Inc. (Kelly Benefits). Contact information for Kelly Benefits, including the address and telephone number, is provided later in this notice. Kelly Benefits is the third-party COBRA administrator. You may also contact the Plan Administrator for the Plan.

Why am I getting this notice?

You're getting this notice because your coverage under the Plan will end on 09/30/2024* due to:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> End of employment | <input type="checkbox"/> Entitlement to Medicare |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Divorce or legal separation | <input type="checkbox"/> Loss of dependent child status |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Death of employee | <input type="checkbox"/> Reduction in hours of employment |

Federal law requires that most group health plans (including this Plan) give employees and their families the opportunity to continue their health care coverage through COBRA continuation coverage when there's a "qualifying event" that would result in a loss of coverage under an employer's plan.

What is COBRA continuation coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is the same coverage that the Plan gives to other participants or beneficiaries who aren't getting continuation coverage. Each "qualified beneficiary" (described below) who elects COBRA continuation coverage will have the same rights under the Plan as other participants or beneficiaries covered under the Plan.

* This represents the date your medical coverage will end. For the purpose of this notice, health care coverage includes but is not limited to vision, dental, RX, and EAP. Each plan is separate and has separate carrier rules. As a result, effective dates, termination dates and billing may vary pursuant to the carrier rules for the type of coverage selected.

Both Contract and Benefits are under HR -- Reflective of Richard Hartman

Who are the qualified beneficiaries?

Each person (“qualified beneficiary”) in the category(ies) checked below has an independent right to elect COBRA continuation coverage:

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Employee or former employee | Ryan Dillon-Capps |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | Spouse or former spouse | Caroline Dillon |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Dependent child(ren) covered under the Plan on the day before the event that caused the loss of coverage | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Child who is losing coverage under the Plan because he or she is no longer a dependent under the Plan. | |

With the exception of a child born to, adopted by or placed for adoption with the covered employee during the COBRA continuation coverage period, a family member that you enroll after COBRA begins (e.g. during annual enrollment or through a special enrollment) is not a qualified beneficiary.

Detailed instructions for electing COBRA continuation coverage are provided later in this notice. NOTE: If you do not elect COBRA continuation coverage in accordance with these instructions, your coverage under the Plan will end on the date identified on the front page of this notice and you will lose your right to elect COBRA continuation coverage.

Are there other coverage options besides COBRA Continuation Coverage?

Yes. Instead of enrolling in COBRA continuation coverage, there may be other more affordable coverage options for you and your family through the Health Insurance Marketplace, Medicaid, or other group health plan coverage options (such as a spouse’s plan) through what is called a “special enrollment period.” Some of these options may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage.

You should compare your other coverage options with COBRA continuation coverage and choose the coverage that is best for you. For example, if you move to other coverage you may pay more out of pocket than you would under COBRA because the new coverage may impose a new deductible.

When you lose job-based health coverage, it’s important that you choose carefully between COBRA continuation coverage and other coverage options, because once you’ve made your choice, it can be difficult or impossible to switch to another coverage option.

If I elect COBRA continuation coverage, when will my coverage begin and how long will the coverage last?

If elected, COBRA continuation coverage will begin on 10/01/2024 and can last until 04/01/2026.

You may elect any of the following options for COBRA continuation coverage listed later in this notice. Continuation coverage may end before the date noted above in certain circumstances, like failure to pay premiums, fraud, or the individual becomes covered under another group health plan.

Can I extend the length of COBRA continuation coverage?

If you elect continuation coverage, you may be able to extend the length of continuation coverage if a qualified beneficiary is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled, or if a qualified beneficiary experiences a second qualifying event during the COBRA continuation period. You must notify Kelly Benefits of a disability or a second qualifying event within a certain time periods described below to extend the period of continuation coverage. If you don’t provide notice of a disability or second qualifying event within the required time period, it will affect your right to extend the period of continuation coverage.

Disability

An 11-month extension of coverage may be available if any of the qualified beneficiaries is determined under the Social Security Act (SSA) to be disabled. The disability has to have started at some time on or before the 60th day of COBRA continuation coverage and must last at least until the end date of the 18-month period of continuation coverage. To be considered for the extension, you must send a copy of the original SSA's notice which shows the exact date that the qualified beneficiary became disabled to Kelly Benefits within the first 18 months of the COBRA continuation coverage and within 60 days, starting from the latest of: (1) the date on which SSA issues the disability determination; (2) the date of which the qualifying event occurs; (3) the date on which the qualified beneficiary loses or would lose coverage under the plan as a result of the qualifying event; or (4) the date on which the qualified beneficiary is informed through the furnishing of the COBRA general notice, of the responsibility to notify the Plan and the procedure for doing so.

Each qualified beneficiary who has elected continuation coverage will be entitled to the 11-month disability extension if any qualified beneficiary is disabled and timely notice has been provided. If the qualified beneficiary is determined to no longer be disabled under the SSA, you must notify the Plan of that fact within 30 days after SSA's determination.

Second Qualifying Event

An extension of coverage will be available to qualified beneficiary spouses and dependent children who elect continuation coverage if a second qualifying event occurs during the first 18 (or 29 if the disability extension applies) months of continuation coverage. The maximum amount of continuation coverage available when a second qualifying event occurs is 36 months measured from the first qualifying event identified in this notice. Such second qualifying events may include the death of a covered employee, divorce or legal separation from the covered employee, the covered employee's becoming entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both), or a dependent child's ceasing to be eligible for coverage as a dependent under the Plan. These events are second qualifying events only if they would have caused the qualified beneficiary to lose coverage under the Plan if the first qualifying event had not occurred. You must notify the Kelly Benefits within 60 days after a second qualifying event occurs if you want to extend your continuation coverage.

Which Plan benefits may I choose and how much does COBRA continuation coverage cost?

The election form below identifies the specific Plan benefits that you may continue and the cost of each benefit.

You may elect any of the following options for COBRA continuation coverage. COBRA continuation coverage will cost (monthly premium including 2% COBRA Fee):

Plan rates and effective/end dates shown on this form are accurate to the best of the publisher's knowledge; however, are subject to correction if found to be in error. Plans and plan rates subject to change at the Plan's next renewal.

Line Of Business	Previous Coverage	Plan Name	IND	H&W	P&C	PC2	FAM
Dental	H&W	CIGNA DENTAL PPO 50+	$28.85	$56.30	$70.86	$70.86	$98.16
Health	H&W	Open Access Plus HSA	$734.81	$1,700.81	$1,366.42	$1,366.42	$2,072.32

Vision	H&W	Vision 50+	$5.41	$10.83	$10.93	$10.93	$17.46

Other coverage options may cost less. If you choose to elect continuation coverage, you don't have to send any payment with the Election Form. (If first payment is not enclosed you may not be able to access health care coverage until payment is received.) Additional information about payment will be provided to you after the election form is received by the Plan. Important information about paying your premium can be found at the end of this notice.

You may be able to get coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace that costs less than COBRA continuation coverage. You can learn more about the Marketplace below.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. In the Marketplace, you could be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums and cost-sharing reductions (amounts that lower your out-of-pocket costs for deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments) right away, and you can see what your premium, deductibles, and out-of-pocket costs will be before you make a decision to enroll. Through the Marketplace you'll also learn if you qualify for free or low-cost coverage from Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). You can access the Marketplace for your state at www.HealthCare.gov.

Coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage. Being offered COBRA continuation coverage won't limit your eligibility for coverage or for a tax credit through the Marketplace.

When can I enroll in Marketplace coverage?

You always have 60 days from the time you lose your job-based coverage to enroll in the Marketplace. That is because losing your job-based health coverage is a "special enrollment" event. After 60 days your special enrollment period will end and you may not be able to enroll, so you should take action right away. In addition, during what is called an "open enrollment" period, anyone can enroll in Marketplace coverage.

To find out more about enrolling in the Marketplace, such as when the next open enrollment period will be and what you need to know about qualifying events and special enrollment periods, visit www.HealthCare.gov.

If I sign up for COBRA continuation coverage, can I switch to coverage in the Marketplace? What about if I choose Marketplace coverage and want to switch back to COBRA continuation coverage?

If you sign up for COBRA continuation coverage, you can switch to a Marketplace plan during a Marketplace open enrollment period. You can also end your COBRA continuation coverage early and switch to a Marketplace plan if you have another qualifying event such as marriage or birth of a child through something called a "special enrollment period." But be careful though - if you terminate your COBRA continuation coverage early without another qualifying event, you'll have to wait to enroll in Marketplace coverage until the next open enrollment period, and could end up without any health coverage in the interim.

Once you've exhausted your COBRA continuation coverage and the coverage expires, you'll be eligible to enroll in Marketplace coverage through a special enrollment period, even if Marketplace open enrollment has ended.

If you sign up for Marketplace coverage instead of COBRA continuation coverage, you cannot switch to COBRA continuation coverage under any circumstances.

Can I enroll in another group health plan?

You may be eligible to enroll in coverage under another group health plan (like a spouse's plan), if you request enrollment within 30 days of the loss of coverage.

If you or your dependent chooses to elect COBRA continuation coverage instead of enrolling in another group health plan for which you're eligible, you'll have another opportunity to enroll in the other group health plan within 30 days of losing your COBRA continuation coverage or during the other plan's annual enrollment period.

Can I enroll in Medicare instead of COBRA continuation coverage after my group health plan coverage ends?

In general, if you don't enroll in Medicare Part A or B when you are first eligible because you are still employed, after the initial enrollment period for Medicare Part A or B, you have an 8-month special enrollment period to sign up, beginning on the earlier of

- The month after your employment ends; or
- The month after group health plan coverage based on current employment ends

If you don't enroll in Medicare Part B and elect COBRA continuation coverage instead, you may have to pay a Part B late enrollment penalty and you may have a gap in coverage if you decide you want Part B later. If you elect COBRA continuation coverage and then enroll in Medicare Part A or B before the COBRA continuation coverage ends, the Plan may terminate your continuation coverage. However, if Medicare Part A or B is effective on or before the date of the COBRA election, COBRA coverage may not be discontinued on account of Medicare entitlement, even if you enroll in the other part of Medicare after the date of the election of COBRA coverage

What factors should I consider when choosing coverage options?

When considering your options for health coverage, you may want to think about:

- Premiums: Your previous plan can charge up to 102% of total plan premiums for COBRA coverage. Other options, like coverage on a spouse's plan or through the Marketplace, may be less expensive.
- Provider Networks : If you're currently getting care or treatment for a condition, a change in your health coverage may affect your access to a particular health care provider. You may want to check to see if your current health care providers participate in a network as you consider options for health coverage.
- Drug Formularies: If you're currently taking medication , a change in your health coverage may affect your costs for medication - and in some cases, your medication may not be covered by another plan. You may want to check to see if your current medications are listed in drug formularies for other health coverage.
- Severance payments : If you lost your job and got a severance package from your former employer, your former employer may have offered to pay some or all of your COBRA payments for a period of time. In this scenario, you may want to contact the Department of Labor at 1-866-444-3272 to discuss your options
- Service Areas : Some plans limit their benefits to specific service or coverage areas - so if you move to another area of the country, you may not be able to use your benefits. You may want to see if your plan has a service or coverage area, or other similar limitations
- Other Cost-Sharing: In addition to premiums or contributions for health coverage, you probably pay copayments, deductibles, coinsurance, or other amounts as you use your benefits. You may want to check to see what the cost-sharing requirements are for other health coverage options. For example, one option may have much lower monthly premiums, but a much higher deductible and higher copayments.

Important Information About Payment*First payment for continuation coverage*

You must make your first payment for continuation coverage no later than 45 days after the date of your election (this is the date the Election Notice is postmarked). If you don't make your first payment in full no later than 45 days after the date of your election, you'll lose all continuation coverage rights under the Plan. You're responsible for making sure the amount of your first payment is correct. You may contact our Kelly Benefits COBRA Call Center via e-mail at cobrainfo@kellybenefits.com, or mail at 1 Kelly Way, Sparks, MD 21152, or phone at 443-589-1862 or 866-696-4548 to confirm the correct amount of your first payment.

Periodic payments for continuation coverage

After you make your first payment for continuation coverage, you'll have to make periodic payments for each coverage period that follows. The amount due for each coverage period for each qualified beneficiary is shown in this notice.

The periodic payments can be made on a monthly basis. Under the Plan, each of these periodic payments for continuation coverage is due on the 25th day of the month prior to the coverage month for that coverage period. If you make a periodic payment on or before the first day of the coverage period to which it applies, your coverage under the Plan will continue for that coverage period without any break. The Plan will NOT send periodic notices of payments due for these coverage periods.

Grace periods for periodic payments

Although periodic payments are due on the dates shown above, you'll be given a grace period of 30 days after the first day of the coverage period to make each periodic payment. You'll get continuation coverage for each coverage period as long as payment for that coverage period is made before the end of the grace period. If you pay a periodic payment later than the first day of the coverage period to which it applies, but before the end of the grace period for the coverage period, your coverage will be suspended as of the first day of the coverage period and then retroactively reinstated (going back to the first day of the coverage period) when the periodic payment is received. This means that any claim you submit for benefits while your coverage is suspended may be denied and may have to be resubmitted once your coverage is reinstated.

If you don't make a periodic payment before the end of the grace period for that coverage period, you'll lose all rights to continuation coverage under the Plan.

Your first payment continuation coverage should be sent to:

Kelly Benefits
COBRA Department
1 Kelly Way
Sparks, MD 21152

All subsequent payments for continuation coverage should be sent to:

Kelly Benefits

Re: Case No. C-03-CV-244-002264
Baltimore County Circuit Court
TRO and Preliminary Injunction
Ohana Growth Partners

The exhibits attached to the letter on the court record are fraudulent as well.

Dear Judge,

↳ Truffle

I am writing to bring to your attention urgent matters concerning my current legal situation and request immediate judicial intervention regarding a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) and Preliminary Injunction that conflicts with legal and compliance obligations.

I have been dealing with significant issues related to my employment with Ohana Growth Partners, which have been exacerbated by recent events. I had secured three strong referrals for legal assistance, but they conflicted. I was starting the process to work with the fourth referral, but I found out at midnight that they couldn't help me due to a family bereavement and a pre-scheduled conference. Consequently, they refunded my retainer, leaving me without legal representation at a critical time.

Currently, I am facing a situation where compliance with the TRO and Preliminary Injunction would require me to violate PCI compliance standards, thereby putting me in a position where I must choose between violating federal compliance requirements or being held in contempt of court. The opposing counsel has informed me that I must comply by noon today, June 18, 2024.
I read this demand at about a quarter to 11, which eventually led me to write this letter and rush to the courthouse.

On June 13, 2024, at 7:12 AM, I notified the CFO, Head of HR, and President of Ohana Growth Partners that I was commencing my FMLA leave due to PTSD. My FMLA status was last confirmed and validated by the HR Generalist on May 23, 2024. Despite this, at 9:01 AM on the same day, I received a demand letter requiring me to return to work and I had 6 hours to do it---or else. In response, I issued a cease and desist letter, which is included in petitioner Exhibit B, clarifying that the cease and desist pertained to my right to FMLA leave.

The basis for my suspension, as claimed by my employer, consists of two parts:

1. They misconstrued my cease and desist letter as a refusal to comply with work demands, despite its clear reference to FMLA leave.
2. They demanded that I grant Global Administrator access, which would be a violation of PCI compliance. The company failed to inform the court of this crucial compliance issue and the proactive measures I had taken to grant access to the President under PCI compliance guidelines.

I have over 25 years of experience in IT and am responsible for ensuring PCI compliance within the organization. Granting Global Administrator access without ensuring compliance would be a serious violation of these standards. Despite providing several alternatives and options to my employer, they have persisted in demanding actions that would compromise compliance and security.

Furthermore, the company has engaged in retaliatory actions, including placing my IT Coordinator on administrative leave shortly after receiving the cease and desist letter. This retaliation appears to be in direct response to my assertion of FMLA rights.

Due to these pressing issues and the sudden unavailability of my legal counsel, I am seeking immediate judicial relief to address the following:

1. Clarification and potential modification of the TRO and Preliminary Injunction to ensure compliance with PCI standards without subjecting me to contempt of court.
2. Protection against retaliation for exercising my FMLA rights.
3. Adequate time to secure new legal representation to address these urgent matters.

All supporting documentation and communications are available to substantiate my claims. I printed out as many as I could before rushing over here today.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

With gratitude and appreciation,

Ryan Wagner

DENIED

The court has reviewed the Defendant's correspondence and will view it as a request, pursuant to Md. Rule 15-504(f) to dissolve or modify the 6.17.2014 TRO. The correspondence does not provide sufficient specificity to permit the court to modify the TRO at this time. The court will consider the Defendant's requests at the hearing scheduled for 6.26.2024.
